Our Mission is to provide financial help to poor people who are in medical emergency or need support for education. Help is given to all people irrespective of race, religion or nationality. Emphasis is given to help requests which involves life threatening situation, medical or otherwise, where we can prevent a loss of life. All effort is made to find genuine help requests and reaching out on time, and at the same time maximizing help to the beneficiary. Request for help comes through helpsavelife members who may know the the person directly or indirectly and submit to the group for approval with all necessary documentaion.

This is a friendly group and the success solely depends upon the goodwill and trustworthiness of the members and having a kind and broad heart to reach out to people who are suffering. We encourage you to join this charitable group and try to make a little difference in the life of someone in our beautiful planet.

Contributions to HelpSaveLife are 100% Exempt from US Income Tax.
